

2040 Christmas Quiz 2022

Round One: warm up

1) Which of the following would you most likely be required to do a DPIA on?

- A) Upgrading your HR system
- B) Checking the accuracy of your staff data
- C) Disclosing CCTV images to a police officer
- D) Gathering staff data for diversity monitoring

2) Which of these would PECR apply to?

- A) Postal marketing based on health data
- B) Emails sent to DPOs at work about 2040's amazing courses
- C) Text about your credit card company's free app
- D) Text encouraging you to get your flu jab

3) Which of the following is exempt from UK GDPR?

- A) CCTV images of a person falling over in a shop
- B) X-rays held by a hospital of the shopper's broken leg
- C) A lawyer's file of evidence about the accident
- D) A member of the public filming the incident for their own entertainment

4) Which of the following is not likely to be a data processor?

- A) Company who shreds your paper documents
- B) Company representing you in a legal claim
- C) Company that fixes your network security
- D) Company that stores your data in the cloud

5) Which of the following would not be a criminal offence under the DPA 2018?

- A) Keeping data that you are not authorised to hold
- B) Enforced subject access
- C) Selling stolen personal data
- D) Failure to encrypt laptops

Round 2: Odd One Out

Which is the odd one out?

1) Personal data

- A) Name of beneficiary in a will
- B) Bank balance
- C) Cause of death
- D) Passport number

2) UK definition of consent

- A) Freely given
- B) Specific
- C) Updated annually
- D) Informed

3) Special categories

- A) Member of National Black Police Association
- B) Member of Star Wars Appreciation Society
- C) Member of Alcoholics Anonymous
- D) Member of the Green Party

4) Words that appear in the GDPR

- A) Privacy
- B) Encryption
- C) Fine
- D) Cookie

5) Words that appear in PECR

- A) Cookie
- B) Soft opt-in
- C) Facsimile machine
- D) Email

Round 3: Freedom of Information

1) Name an exemption that is not applicant blind

2) True or false: EIR applicants need to provide their real names

3) Who wrote the black spider letters?

4) Name an exemption that is absolute for some organisations but not for others

5) What is the most serious action that ICO can take under FOI?

Round 4: Information Commissioner

- 1) Who was the first Commissioner?
- 2) Which Commissioner unsuccessfully stood as an MP?
- 3) Who was the Data Protection Commissioner?
- 4) Who was the only Commissioner to resign?
- 5) Who is the top result when you Google search for “John Edwards”?

Round 5: Santa's Compliance Headaches

1) Santa Claus is based in Lapland, the northernmost part of Finland. Is he covered by the UK GDPR?

A) No

B) Yes

2) Santa wants to profile children as naughty or nice: which part of GDPR is the most relevant to this process?

A) A43.2

B) A11

C) A5(d)

D) A6(d)

3) The Elves are seasonal contractors who make toys in Santa's workshop: are they data processors?

A) No: they are employees

B) No: they do not have access to personal data about the children

C) Yes: the list of naughty and nice children is stored in the workshop

D) Yes: Santa makes them sign an NDA

4) Every year, Santa makes a list of naughty and nice children, which he records on paper, sorted by postcode. On the way back to the North Pole, Prancer eats the list of nice children. There is no other copy. Is this a Personal Data Breach?

A) No: opinions are not personal data

B) No: the list is manually held

C) Yes: Prancer should not have had access

D) Yes: the data is lost

5) Is this a reportable PDB?

A) Yes, it is large scale

B) No, the risk is low

C) No, the list is manually held

D) Yes, niceness is a philosophical belief

Round 6: Information Rights Movies

1) Rear Window: name another Hitchcock film starring Grace Kelly

2) Enemy of the State: what other surveillance classic is this supposedly a sequel to?

3) All the President's Men: Ben Bradlee, editor of the Washington Post, is played by Jason Robards in this film. Which relatively recent film also featured Bradlee, and who played him?

4) Benedict Cumberbatch and Joseph Gordon Levitt played real-life, supposed transparency heroes in terrible movies. Name the heroes.

5) Complete probably the most famous line in 'The Dark Knight': what do some men want to do?

2040 Christmas Quiz

ANSWERS

Round One: warm up

1) Which of the following would you most likely be required to do a DPIA on?

- A) Upgrading your HR system (DPIA only necessary if this will involve new processing)
- B) Checking the accuracy of your staff data (very low risk)
- C) Disclosing CCTV images to a police officer (one off processing)
- D) Gathering staff data for diversity monitoring (this will involve special categories data for the first time)

2) Which of these would PECR apply to?

- A) Postal marketing based on health data (not electronic)
- B) Emails sent to DPOs about 2040's amazing courses (emails will be corporate subscribers)
- C) Text about your credit card company's free app
- D) Text encouraging you to get your flu jab (ICO says that public sector promotions aren't direct marketing)

3) Which of the following is exempt from UK GDPR?

- A) CCTV images of a person falling over in a shop
- B) X-rays held by a hospital of the shopper's broken leg
- C) A lawyer's file of evidence about the accident
- D) A member of the public filming the incident for their own entertainment

4) Which of the following is not likely to be a data processor?

- A) Company who shreds your paper documents
- B) Company representing you in a legal claim (involved in determining purposes)
- C) Company that fixes your network security
- D) Company that stores your data in the cloud

5) Which of the following would not be a criminal offence under the DPA 2018?

- A) Keeping data that you are not authorised to hold
- B) Enforced subject access
- C) Selling stolen personal data
- D) Failure to encrypt laptops (breach of GDPR is not criminal)

Round 2: Odd One Out

Which is the odd one out?

1) Personal data

A) Name of beneficiary in a will

B) Bank balance

C) Cause of death (data about deceased people isn't personal data)

D) Passport number

2) UK definition of consent

A) Freely given

B) Specific

C) Updated annually (not mentioned in the UK GDPR)

D) Informed

3) Special categories

A) Member of National Black Police Association

B) Member of Star Wars Appreciation Society (not special categories)

C) Member of Alcoholics Anonymous

D) Member of the Green Party

4) Words that appear in the GDPR

A) Privacy

B) Encryption

C) Fine

D) Cookie (the only one that doesn't appear)

5) Words that appear in PECR

A) Cookie

B) Soft opt-in

C) Facsimile machine (the only one that does appear)

D) Email

Round 3: Freedom of Information

1) Name an exemption that is not applicant blind

S21, S40

2) True or false: EIR applicants need to provide their real names

FALSE (FOI says what a request needs to look like but EIR does not)

3) Who wrote the black spider letters?

King Charles III (nee Prince Charles, The Prince of Wales)

4) Name an exemption that is absolute for some organisations but not for others

S36 (absolute for the Houses of Commons and Lords)

5) What is the most serious action that ICO can take under FOI?

Contempt of Court for failure to respond to a notice issued under FOI 2000

Round 4: Information Commissioner

1) Who was the first Commissioner?

Elizabeth France (Eric Howe was the Registrar)

2) Which Commissioner unsuccessfully stood as an MP?

Christopher Graham

3) Who was the Data Protection Commissioner?

Elizabeth France (the DPA 1998 made her Data Protection Commissioner, then FOI 2000 changed it to Information Commissioner)

4) Who was the only Commissioner to resign?

Elizabeth Denham (not her fault; it's the result of a mistake in the drafting of the DPA 2018 which meant she would be in office for much longer than anyone intended)

5) Who is the top result when you Google search for "John Edwards"?

John Edwards: running mate of Al Gore in his doomed attempt to become US President in 2000.

Round 5: Santa's Compliance Headaches

1) Santa Claus is based in Lapland, the northernmost part of Finland. Is he covered by the UK GDPR?

A) No

B) Yes: he is monitoring the behaviour of people in the UK to determine whether they are naughty or nice

2) Santa wants to profile children as naughty or nice: which part of GDPR is the most relevant to this process?

A) A43.2

B) A11

C) A5(d) – Santa really should ensure that his naughty / nice assessments are accurate

D) A6(d)

3) The Elves are seasonal contractors who make toys in Santa's workshop: are they data processors?

A) No: they are employees

B) No: they do not have access to personal data about the children

C) Yes: the list of naughty and nice children is stored in the workshop

D) Yes: Santa makes them sign an NDA

4) Every year, Santa makes a list of naughty and nice children, which he records on paper, sorted by postcode. On the way back to the North Pole, Prancer eats the list of nice children. There is no other copy. Is this a Personal Data Breach?

A) No: opinions are not personal data

B) No: the list is manually held

C) Yes: Prancer should not have had access

D) Yes: the data is lost

5) Is this a reportable PDB?

A) Yes, it is large scale

B) No, the risk is low

C) No, the list is manually held

D) Yes, niceness is a philosophical belief

Round 6: Information Rights Movies

1) Rear Window: name another Hitchcock film starring Grace Kelly

Either 'Dial M for Murder' or 'To Catch A Thief'

2) Enemy of the State: what other surveillance classic is this supposedly a sequel to?

'The Conversation': the picture of Gene Hackman's character in his NSA file is a shot from the 1970s classic.

3) All the President's Men: Ben Bradlee, editor of the Washington Post, is played by Jason Robards in this film. Which relatively recent film also featured Bradlee, and who played him?

Tom Hanks in 'The Post'

4) Benedict Cumberbatch and Joseph Gordon Levitt played real-life, supposed transparency heroes in terrible movies. Name the "heroes".

Cumberbatch: Julian Assange in 'The Fifth Estate'

JGL: Edward Snowden in 'Snowden'

5) Complete probably the most famous line in 'The Dark Knight': what do some men want to do?

Some men just want to watch the world burn.